About us

Afford supports people with disability.

We are a registered provider with the

afford

National Disability Insurance Scheme or NDIS.
Registered provider means we follow the rules set by the NDIS.

Why do we need your personal information?

Your personal information means things we know about you. For example

- your name
- where you live • your contact information
- your date of birth.

When you use our services we must have some of your personal information.

afford

Your personal information might come from

- your family

- your guardian

- someone else you trust.

We might use your personal information in different ways.

For example

- to send you information about our services

- to write reports.

We will not give anyone your personal information unless you say yes or the law says we must.

For example, to keep you safe.

Where do we keep your personal information?

afford

We keep your personal information on our computers.

Your personal information can only be seen by

- Afford staff who need to read it
- people and groups who help us to look after you.

Your rights

You have the right to know what we do with your personal information.

You can contact us to

- check your personal information

- make changes to your personal information
– for example, to stop us from contacting you by email or social media.
